

the advance party to Fort Bliss for one week TDY. On 14 September the advance party personnel were transferred to the 31st Engineer Battalion when the company's movement order was revoked.

In July Master Sergeant Paul J. Bianchi was awarded the Army Commendation Medal for outstanding service while assigned to the 630th Engineer Company. He was subsequently transferred to Thailand. In September Staff Sergeant Donald E. Bohanan was awarded the Army Commendation Medal for outstanding service while assigned to the 630th Engineer Company. He was subsequently reassigned to XIX Corps, Fort Chaffee, Arkansas.

The company was given its FY 65 CMMI on 29 August and received an excellent rating. On 3 September the company completed its FY 65 IG inspection with a rating of excellent. These ratings were considered outstanding in view of the company's all-out fire fighting efforts and the recent departure of the advance party to Fort Bliss.

Three EM departed the company for Garfield, Arkansas, to guard a fallen helicopter on 1 October. The company sent an additional eight EM with a tractor, crane, and contact truck to build a road to the helicopter and remove it on 9 November. The job was completed 13 November. The company was relieved of its training mission and began full scale support to Fort Chaffee Post Engineer on 1 October. This support consisted of road maintenance, earth moving, erosion prevention and brush clearing and provided valuable experience to all operators and supervisors.

The company received a movement order to Fort Bliss, Texas, on 4 November effective 2 December. The company loaded its equipment on 69 flat cars and one gondola between 20 and 27 November. The equipment departed Fort Chaffee on 30 November. The company's main body moved from Fort Chaffee to Fort Bliss on 2 December via Commercial Air Transportation. The equipment arrived at Fort Bliss on 3 December with no damaged or lost equipment.

The 630th Engineer Company familiarized with the 45 caliber pistol to prepare 123 EM for guard duty with the 31st Engineer Battalion and Service Group on 30 December.